Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy

Introduction

Tiger Scaffolding Ltd. recognise that bribery and corruption are damaging to legitimate business interests. We conduct all our business, across the globe, in an honest and ethical manner and we want to ensure that all our associates and business partners do the same.

The Bribery Act 2010 sets clear standards of illegal behaviour which govern our UK operations and which travel with us when we work overseas. We embrace robust policies and procedures to ensure we are transparent and ethical in all our business dealings. We have a zero tolerance approach to financial crime and we undertake due diligence on third parties with whom we work to ensure they have high ethical standards and our reputation will not be compromised by our association with them.

The following guidance includes details of our expectations and the controls that we utilise to enforce this policy as part of our ongoing commitment to implement adequate procedures to guard against illegal practices. Bribery and corrupt practices can flourish where secrecy and shady environments permit; our culture encourages openness and honesty to combat the threat of corruption.

We ask all who have dealings with the group, as employees, agents, trading partners and customers, to help us in our fight against corruption and to contact us immediately, via the details set out below, if you have any concerns or suspicions we need to know about.
