

Whistleblowing Policy

Introduction

Whistleblowing is the reporting of suspected wrongdoing or dangers in relation to our activities. This includes bribery, fraud or other criminal activity, miscarriages of justice, health and safety risks, damage to the environment and any breach of legal or professional obligations.

You should in the first instance report your concerns to a manager or director who will contact you as soon as possible to discuss your concern.

Tiger Scaffolding Ltd. hope that staff will feel able to voice whistleblowing concerns openly under this policy. Completely anonymous disclosures are difficult to investigate. If you want to raise your concern confidentially, we will make every reasonable effort to keep your identity secret and only reveal it where necessary to those involved in investigating your concern.

The aim of this policy is to provide an internal mechanism for reporting, investigating and remedying any wrongdoing in the workplace. In most cases you should not find it necessary to alert anyone externally.

However, the law recognises that in some circumstances it may be appropriate for you to report your concerns to an external body such as a regulator. We strongly encourage you to seek advice before reporting a concern to anyone external. Public Concern at Work operates a confidential helpline.

Whistleblowers must not suffer any detrimental treatment as a result of raising a genuine concern.

If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform a Director immediately.

You must not threaten or retaliate against whistleblowers in any way. If you are involved in such conduct you may be subject to disciplinary action. However, if we conclude that a whistleblower has made false allegations maliciously or with a view to personal gain, the whistleblower may themselves be subject to disciplinary action.

Signed.....
